

General Terms & Conditions – Canima GmbH

Dog School

Registration/cancellation and payment conditions

- Registration is done via e-mail (mydog@canima.ch) and counts after confirmation from Canima as legally binding conclusion of a contract.
- Attendance numbers are limited. Registrations are considered in order of arrival.
- Payment for all arranged lessons is to be made via invoice, before the first lesson. Payment in cash against receipt on the first day of a course is possible upon consultation. The current prices for our courses and lessons can be found on our website.
- The 10-lesson-vouchers are valid until a preset date. After expiration no claim can be made for the remaining lessons.
- The 10-lesson-vouchers for the obligatory dog courses are personal and not transferable to a third party.
- In case of loss of the 10-lesson-voucher by the participant, the voucher will not be replaced. In addition, there is no refund in case of premature termination of the course by the participant.
- Inability to attend the lesson must be reported in written form via e-mail (mydog@canima.ch) by the participant 24 hours in advance. If Canima does not receive a written cancellation by this time, the lesson will be fully charged.
- Canima reserves the right to shift or cancel a course or lessons. Participants are usually informed early, about five days in advance. In case of cancellation of a course, the payment will be refunded or allowed for a later course or lesson.
- In case of unreasonable weather, lessons can be postponed or cancelled short dated for security reasons at Canimas discretion. In case of cancellation, the payment will be refunded or allowed for a later lesson.

Attendance and liability

- Female dogs in heat may not take part in lessons. The participant has to notify Canima and cancel the lesson 24 hours beforehand, otherwise the lesson will be charged.
- All dogs must be vaccinated (obligatory vaccinations) and have to be dewormed at least twice a year.
- Should a dog be sick or show behavioural problems like aggression against humans or animals, this is to be reported beforehand.

Canima

- Canima reserves the right to exclude participants that are not up to the course standard (if a dog shows severe problems which can not be adapted in a group lesson) and to recommend private lessons. Should the participant not be willing to remedy the deficit, exclusion from the training can ensue without refund of the payment.
- Canima does not give a warrant of success, as success depends on cooperation and application of the participant and the capabilities of the dog.
- The certificate for the obligatory courses is issued after successful completion of the mandatory lessons.
- If a participant does not actively take part in the lessons or refuses to participate in the exercises which are a mandatory part of the SKN-/Junghunde-/Erziehungskurs, the participant will not receive the certificate.
- The attendance of all courses happens at one's own risk. Insurance for dog and owner is the responsibility of the owner. Participants are liable for all damage or injury caused by themselves and/or their dog.
- Canima does not assume any liability for damage to persons, property damage or financial loss that arises from application and implementation of the shown exercises nor for damages and/or injuries of any kind caused by the participants and/or their dogs.
- Possible accompanying persons have to be advised of the existing disclaimer of liability by the participant.

Care Services

Reservation/cancellation and payment conditions

Canima

Terms of admission and obligations of Canima

- Before admission of a dog to our dog care, a trial walk with owner and dog is arranged.
- Only socially agreeable dogs will be admitted to the dog care.
- Basic obedience (call-back, leash walking, sit, stay and no) is a must.
- Uncastrated female dogs are not taken into care by Canima.
- If a dog feels uncomfortable in our care or is completely unable to affiliate in the pack, the owner will be informed and the care may be stopped.
- Canima pledges to organise the stay of the dogs pleasantly and species-appropriately and to care for the dogs with due diligence and competence.
- The animal protection act is abided by.
- Canima only cares for a maximum of five dog guests per person.

Obligations of the owner

- The dog is in a generally healthy state and has no contagious illnesses. If the dog has an illness that requires the administration of medication, Canima has to be informed and instructed and handed the medication by the owner.
- A copie of the vaccination card has to be supplied before the first stay. Without the obligatory vaccinations, Canima does not admit the dog into care.
- All dogs must be dewormed at least twice a year.
- The dog is registered and chipped.
- Canima is to be informed of hunting behaviour or other behavioural problems and/or allergies.

Disclaimer of liability

- If a dog runs away and is not found, Canima is only liable in case of proven negligence or violation of duty of supervision.
- If the need for a visit to the vet arises, the costs will be covered by the owner with the exception of cases of proven negligence or violation of duty of supervision by Canima.
- In case of an accident or personal/material damage to third parties, liability falls to the owner except in cases of proven negligence or violation of duty of supervision by Canima.
- Canima does not assume liability for unwanted pairings and their consequences.

With registration for a lesson or a reservation for any of our care services, the owner agrees by default with the above listed General Terms and Conditions.
